Introduction

AeroPro supplies the world's leading aviation corporations with precision made products for corporate use, retail sales, marketing and promotional distribution. Dedicated to the aviation industry, AeroPro has become a leader in providing quality customized products at a lower cost than its competitors and tests all products against CPSIA and ASTM F963-08 requirements. Our goal is to assist our clients in reducing their overall cost while at the same time providing them with safe, quality driven products that accurately represent their business image.

AeroPro has developed an exclusive line of aviation themed promotional premiums aligned to bring your company and clients brand recognition. The Aero Le Plane[®] products provide a seamless solution that appeals to all age groups and demographics. Our goal is to assist our clients in reducing their overall cost while at the same time providing them with products that accurately represent their business and image. We offer no setup fees, no extra or hidden charges for color matching or samples, unlimited artwork revisions, pre-production samples of all products, and most importantly, quality products.

Our client portfolio includes Continental Airlines, ExpressJet, Air Canada, US Airways, Star Alliance and many others who demand quality on all levels. Our quality products & competitive prices have earned their trust and continued support of AeroPro. We hope you will give us the chance to help enhance and expand your business.

If you have any questions you can call us at +1-347-343-2278. Most importantly; as we say here at AeroPro, "Fly with Smile!"

The Aero Le Plane[®] Product Line

Our Cutie

The Aero Le Plane[®] "Airplane Cutie" shape is prevalent throughout our product line, from the tops of pens to huggable plush airplanes. The distinct shape is easily recognizable and offers continuity through a clients merchandise portfolio.

Toys & Games

Our plush airplanes, magnetic games, coin banks and many other items are a hit with children of all ages. Perfect for in-flight sales, these products will help keep the little ones settled in their seats for the journey!

Travel Needs

Keep your bags closed tight with our luggage belts and our lanyards are perfect give-a-ways for minors traveling alone. Personal mirrors will ensure you look your best on those long-haul flights!

Custom Products

Our facilities are prepared to create any custom products that are required by your business. From imprinted pens to complex corporate presentation gifts, we have the design and manufacturing resources to bring concept to reality.

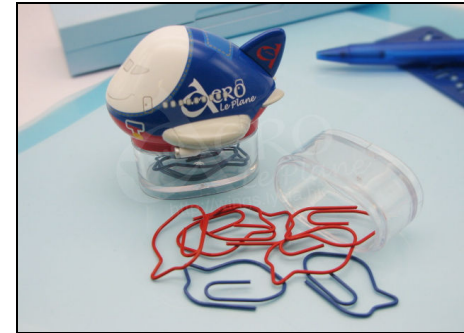

The AeroPro Difference

With so many sources for promotional items in the marketplace, it is difficult to find a source that will focus on your specific business sector. This is where AeroPro is ahead of the competition. Rather than offer items that span across many areas, AeroPro focuses on one - the Aviation Industry. Quality, customer satisfaction and honest communication are at the core of our business.

Who We Sell To

We accept orders from any company or group. Airlines, corporations, and small companies are welcome! We will work with your facility to customize your orders. AeroPro requires that proof of ownership or the license to reproduce the airline's livery/liveries, trademark(s), design(s), and color(s) must be presented upon placing an order. We fully accept fantasy designs or artwork with no restrictions other than those designs that we may be deemed trademark/copyright infringement or are technically difficult to reproduce.
